

13.12 MORATORIUM ON FEES AND CHARGES FOR THE COMMERCIAL USE OF FOOTPATH AREAS IN THE KEMPSEY CBD

Officer Robert Fish, Director Operations and Planning
File No F18/1349
Attachments 1. Procedure 1.12.18: Commercial Use of Footpaths - Kempsey CBD [13.12.1]

PURPOSE

To propose an extension to the moratorium on fees and charges for the commercial use of the footpath areas in the Kempsey CBD until December 2020. The intention of this extension is to enable the continuation of the activation of the streetscape areas within the CBD.

At this stage 12:37 pm, Councillor Saul declared a pecuniary interest in item 13.12 for the reason that he is a business owner/operator in the area under the moratorium. Councillor Saul left the Chambers.

MOVED:

MOVED: CI Patterson
SECONDED: CI Hauville

1 That Council extends the moratorium on the payment of fees and charges associated with the commercial use of footpath areas within the Kempsey Shire, villages and town centres until 1 July 2020.

2 That the Economic Development and Tourism Committee provide a report no later than September 2019 for council's consideration on the effectiveness of the moratorium and how the fees could be reintroduced.
